SUITABLE ARMY STALLIONS

F. K. Sturgis Furnishes Specifications for Proper Sires.

Fixes Age and Size—Must Not Be Less Than Three Years Old and Sturdy Built.

New York, July 19.—From time to time public-spirited sportsmen and breeders have donated thoroughbred stallions to the Breeding Bureau for use in the production of a better army horse. As a matter of fact, most of the stallions that are in service for government breeding were received by donation, but in some instances the gifts have not been altogether appropriate, though the intentions of the donor were the best in the world.

It is the desire to obtain the best thoroughbreds for this service and to that end Chairman F. K. Sturgis has sent the following letter, which is self-explanatory, to Algernon Daingerfield:

"New York, July 17, 1918.

"Mr. Algernon Daingerfield,
"Secretary, the Breeding Bureau of The Jockey Club, 18 East Forty-First Street, New York.

"My Dear Daingerfield:

"The Breeding Bureau of the Jockey Club has been the fortunate recipient by gift of many fine stallions during the past season. These animals have been stationed in different portions of the country and the reports from them have been most gratifying.

"I write you at this time more particularly because of the interest displayed by the United States government in the breeding of horses for army use, and the close relations which the Breeding Bureau of the Jockey Club has been able to establish with the authorities in Washington.

ANXIOUS TO RECEIVE DONATIONS.

"We are still most anxious to receive donations of stallions from the horse breeders through the country and to furnish the United States government with further facilities for their Remount Breeding Department. Many fine animals have already passed through the hands of the Breeding Bureau to the government service. The type of horse we much desire to obtain may be briefly described as follows:

"Not less than three years of age, nor under fifteen hands two inches in height; to be powerfully built, of short canon bone, good hocks and well-turned quarters and loins. The more substance possessed by the animal the better for our purpose and if a record for speed has been obtained, it adds to the value for breeding purposes. A strong back is essential and sloping shoulders, good feet and absolute freedom from spavin, ringbone, defective vision or other things of an undesirable nature that might be transmitted to offspring.

"There is a constant use for the right class of horse, and we shall welcome with much appreciation gifts that might come under the above description.

"The Jockey Club is appreciative of the support that the horsemen of the country have bestowed upon the Breeding Bureau, and is most anxious to continue and to extend the usefulness of the Bureau in as many directions as possible.

"Very sincerely yours,
"(Signed) F. K. Sturgis,
"Chairman of the Breeding Bureau."

BELMONT PARK STAKES CLOSE MONDAY

It is worth noting that of the ten Belmont Park stakes, which close for entries at midnight of Monday, only three, the Nassau Selling Stakes, the Mineola Selling Stakes and the newly-instituted Tomboy Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, are of guaranteed values. All the others have a liberal provision of added money. In view of the real prosperity of the New York racing organizations this year, it may be safely predicted that the time is not far away when added money stakes will supplant the guaranteed value stakes of New York racing almost entirely.

The stake races now proffered by the Westchester Racing Association for its autumn meeting at Belmont Park fit in well with the general program of eastern fall racing and should be heartily supported by owners. It is to their own interest to do all within their power to foster Metropolitan racing and their part is to furnish entries that will captivate the public imagination. Their attention is solicited to the association's advertisement, published elsewhere in this issue of Daily Racing Form.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

B. J. T., Columbus, O. If the parlays were all made at one and the same time, in advance of the races, the fact that they were accepted, is conclusive that they should be paid.

R. H., Cleveland, O. Any wager accepted by a layer should be paid if it wins, unless the layer has well grounded evidence that the backer had knowledge of the result at the time.

HIGH CLASS FEATS IN RACING EAST AND WEST OF THE NOTED SPRINTER AND MILER, LEOCHARES

Although the majority of thoroughbreds disappear from racing after from a year to three years of track service, there are exceptions. This is well illustrated in present day racing by the continued prowess of such high-class and durable veterans as Roamer, Borrow and Leochares. Of this illustrious trio, Borrow is the oldest and accordingly, has shown in his racing this year that he is feeling the ravages of time. Leochares, on the other hand, although possibly not quite as good as he was in his best estate, is not far from it and is still a formidable opponent to any high-class sprinter in the land, still enormously speedy and especially able to carry high weight successfully. Being now a member of a stable conducted on high-class lines, Leochares is raced conservatively and is worthily rewarding considerate treatment. He was not started this year until May 7, at the Pimlico spring meeting, when in a dash of three-quarters of a mile, he ran unplaced to Jock Scot, The Porter and Tumbler in 1:12⅗. He was top weight with 120 pounds up and finished fifth and running fast. May 14 he was beaten again at the same distance. This time the track was heavy and, with 126 pounds up, he ran second to the speedy three-year-old Dr. Johnson, 103 pounds. He was beaten a length in 1:14⅗, with Jock Scot third. Then, with the other horses of the McLean Stable, he was brought west for a campaign over the Kentucky tracks.

In this essay his first start was in the Memorial Handicap at Douglas Park, May 30. In this he was given 129 pounds and was not viewed with favor, being fifth choice in the mutuel betting. Hon. J. N. Camden's Solly had been doing great things in racing and, despite his heavy impost of 140 pounds, was an even money favorite. Leochares was well in the rear for the first half mile, but he came through the homestretch with a resistless burst of supreme speed and won by a half length from Tacola, with Fruit Cake third and Solly bringing up last of all. A. N. Akin, Prince of Como, St. Augustine, Boniface and Believe Me Boys were the other starters. Leochares paid 1040 to 100 in the mutuels and won in 1:11⅕. June 4 he took up 132 pounds at the same distance, in a purse race and, running three-quarters in 1:11, won easily, defeating Believe Me Boys, Right Angle and Opportunity. Starting in the Pendennis Club Special, June 8, at a mile, he met his master in the splendid colt Escoba. However, it was a great race and Leochares was only beaten by a neck in the fastest mile ever run in Kentucky, the time recorded being 1:36⅘. Bradley's Choice was third, Fruit Cake and Duke of Savoy running unplaced. The race was run under a prescribed low scale of weight, Escoba carrying 100 pounds to 110 on Leochares. His next race was at Latonia, June 15, in the Enquirer Handicap at three-quarters of a mile. This was won by the fast colt Boniface, 106 pounds, by a length and a half. Then heads apart came Quietude, Viva America, Fruit Cake, Leochares, A. N. Akin and Prince of Como. Leochares was unlucky in this race and, with a reasonably clear course, would have won. In a purse race at a mile June 17, he carried 123 pounds and easily defeated J. J. Murdock, Freecutter and Midway in 1:38⅕.

AN UNEXPECTED REVERSE.

His next race brought up an unexpected reverse. Starting in a purse race July 3, at three-quarters of a mile, with 132 pounds up, he was a 3 to 5 favorite, but ran unplaced to Boniface, Grundy and Buford in 1:11⅗. The first three were heads apart and Leochares was fourth, two lengths back, but gaining fast under a faulty ride. July 10 he made ample amends when he won the valuable Quickstep Handicap at the same distance. For this the handicapper gave him 130 pounds and, coming through the homestretch with wonderful speed, he made short work of Boniface and won by four lengths in 1:11⅗. Boniface, Violet Bonnie, Viva America, Quietude, J. J. Murdock, Bringhurst, A. N. Akin and Basil finishing in the order named. That was the last race of his western campaign. Along with his stablemates, he was taken east and is now at Saratoga, awaiting new adventures in clashing with other nimble footed warriors of his kind.

Early in the year 1912, John W. Schorr purchased several good two-year-olds from H. P. Whitney. It is probable that at the time Brawny was supposed to be the best of those bought, but the flight of time revealed that Leochares was the real bargain and a rarely good one to boot.

As a two-year-old he was given time to mature and did not start in his first race until July 3, 1912, at Fort Erie. His debut was in a five-eighths of a mile dash for maiden two-year-olds. This he won from ten opponents and finished eight lengths in front of Miccosukee in 1:00⅗, convincing evidence of being gifted with speed of a high order. In his next race he was beaten by Horron over a heavy track and the same distance in 1:03⅗, at Windsor, July 13. Two days afterwards he achieved his first victory in a stake race, when he defeated Lysander, Confido, Miss Edith and Loch Lomond in the Edenwold Stakes and ran its five-eighths in 1:03⅘ over a muddy track. After this triumph he was beaten in six consecutive races and then, oddly enough, he turned in and won seven in a row without an intervening defeat. The first of this series was a purse race at Windsor, August 26, in which he ran five-eighths in 1:00⅘ and won easily from Volita, Tankard and five more. August 28, at the same track, he won the Essex Handicap at five and a half furlongs and defeated such a celebrity as Rock View, along with Ballyshe and Miss Edith, but he only had up 108 pounds to 126 on Rock View. However, he won easily in 1:09 over a muddy track. Rock View was a 3 to 5 favorite. September 10 he won the Hochelaga Handicap at Blue Bonnets, Montreal. He carried 114 pounds to 121 on Calgary, 107 each on Barnegat, Flabbergast and Scallywag, and 108 on Crinoline. Calgary was a 7 to 10 favorite, but Leochares beat him easily and ran the three-quarters of the race in 1:14⅕. Then to show that he stood in no need of any weight concessions from Calgary, he took up 119 pounds to 118 on the latter and defeated him at five and a half furlongs in 1:06⅘, on the last day of the Montreal meeting, but it was a close thing and he only won by a head. In a purse race of three-quarters of a mile at Toronto, September 21, he again defeated Calgary and ran the distance in 1:12⅘, but as before, it was a tight fit and he was only first by a nose, four others running. September 28 he proved beyond controversy that he could stay well, when he won the Grey Stakes at a mile in 1:40⅗ and, carrying 115 pounds, gave considerable weight each to Flabbergast, Tankard, Oliver Lodge, Afterglow and Flitterfoot. This completed his campaign in Canada and from Toronto he was taken to Laurel, Md.

In his first start there he comported himself with credit, when he ran Rock View to a half length at three-quarters in 1:12⅗ for a purse, Rock View carrying 118 pounds to his 115. Frederick L. Coy, Hester Prynne and Cadeau finished behind him. In another purse race at the same distance, October 16, he was crowded out at the start and unplaced to Yankee Notions, Frederick L. and Tartar in 1:12⅗, but on October 19 won at the same distance and in the same time, defeating His Majesty, Barnegat, Hobnob, Striker, Federal and Cadeau with great ease. His racing as a two-year-old was brought to a conclusion at Pimlico, November 11, when over five and a half furlongs, he won from Briar Path, Tarts and six more in 1:07⅘, thus ending his campaign, as it had began, with a victory.

HIS THREE-YEAR-OLD RECORD.

When a three-year-old Leochares further distinguished himself in racing, but did not win so much money as he did the year before. In respect to his speed, it may be said that he had made all the development to be hoped for, being at the end of the year one of the joint holders of the new American record of 1:10⅘ for three-quarters of a mile. He and Jefferson Livingston's great sprinter Iron Mask met twice in the course of the Douglas Park fall meeting, with honors even as to the outcome, but Iron Mask was giving him much weight on both occasions. The first of the two races was run on September 23, 1913. The starters were Iron Mask, 127 pounds; Leochares, 105; Helen Barbee and Samuel R. Meyer, 108 each. In the race Helen Barbee ran the first quarter in 22⅘. Then Leochares took up the running and covered the first half mile in the extraordinary time of 45⅗. But notwithstanding the excessive pace at which they were traveling, Iron Mask was equal to the requirements of the occasion and, joining Leochares in the homestretch, defeated him by a head in the new record time for three-quarters of a mile of 1:10⅘. Their second meeting at the same distance took place October 3, and this time Iron Mask had up 132 pounds, while Leochares had 109, Helois and Pan Zareta 108 each, Helen Barbee, 112, and Theresa Gill, 95. This time the race was somewhat differently run, the fractionals reading 23, 46⅗, 1:10⅘, and Leochares won by five lengths, with Helois second and Iron Mask third. Leochares was then as good as he could possibly be and a few days previously had defeated Kleburne, Morristown, Prince Hermis and Sonada at a mile in 1:37⅗, being the Douglas Park record for the distance, these three races together giving a fair presentment of what Leochares is capable of doing in racing. All of his victories as a three-year-old were achieved in purse races.

In 1914 Leochares was a busy horse and won ten of his twenty-four races. Moreover, he raced with as much speed and dash as in his previous years and included in his spoils of the track were the Memorial Handicap, at Douglas Park, and the Falls City Handicap, at Churchill Downs. His campaign for the year began at Churchill Downs, May 9, when he won a purse race at five and a half furlongs, in which he readily defeated Grover Hughes, Caugh Hill and Othello, winning easily by three lengths in 1:06. This was the race immediately preceding Old Rosebud's Kentucky Derby. At Douglas Park, May 23, Grover Hughes, carrying 111 pounds to his 120, defeated him for a purse at three-quarters over a quite fast track in 1:11⅕, Star Jasmine being third, while Othello and Helios ran unplaced. May 30, at the same track and distance, he took up 120 pounds and won the Memorial Handicap in 1:11⅗.

New York, July 19.—The consistent Flags gratified his many admirers, who attended the Empire City course en masse, by easily winning the day's feature, the Mahopac Handicap. Beginning slowly, he was rushed up to the pacemaker and ran lapped on the flying Star Spangled, which forced him wide when turning for home, then drew away to an easy win when Lyke called upon him with one whip lash. Star Spangled tired after setting a fast pace, but had no difficulty in holding second place honors from Enfilade.

The Kentucky contingent met a sad fate with the defeat of two well-supported choices in Night Owl and Buford. Night Owl was the westerners choice in the second race, while the eastern delegation relied on the Quincy Stable's Starry Banner. The race proved to be little less than a gallop for Starry Banner, that good son of Ballot leading by a comfortable margin throughout. Night Owl was never prominent.

Buford did no better for the Kentuckians in the third race, the English-bred Minto II., extensively backed by the easterners, winning in a canter.

The Brighton Stable scored a double during the afternoon, Flags winning the main race and Home Sweet Home carrying its colors to victory in the opening dash. Home Sweet Home's race was an excellent one. He was close up all the way and gamely responding to Lyke's urging in the stretch, caught and passed L'Infirmier in the final strides.

Hank O'Day was at his best today and only cantering throughout the mile dash to win by five lengths.

Nan Knoehr furnished a surprise in the closing race, regaining her speed suddenly and easily outdistancing Sylvano and Dahinda, both of which were thought to hold the May representative safe.

Examination disclosed the fact that Koh-i-Noor bled internally in Thursday's race, which accounted for her poor showing. It was for the same cause that negotiations between Mr. Arlington and Frederick Johnson were recently cancelled after the latter had virtually closed the sale of the well-bred mare.

FIVE MOUNTS FOR SANDE.

Jockey Sande has five mounts tomorrow. It is the first chance he has had to show his ability on horses worth while.

H. T. Griffin was a visitor today at Empire City. He will stay a day or two and with his wife will visit their son, who is in Massachusetts in the Marine Corps.

S. C. Nuckols, secretary of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, was at the track today.

Troxler was suspended for five days by the stewards for rough riding on Comfort in the sixth race Thursday.

J. Williams was suspended for ten days by starter Cassidy for disobedience while astride Flyaway in the second race Thursday.

T. Davies, who rode for Major E. B. Cassatt for several years, was a visitor. He has given up the saddle and is now employed in naval construction.

S. C. Hildreth is reported as convalescing from his recent indisposition. His horses will be shipped to Saratoga on Monday next.

The J. K. L. Ross and Viau stables left Belmont Park for the Spa today.

Jockey J. Williams was suspended for ten days by starter Cassidy for trying to change his position yesterday.

R. Troxler will be on the ground for five days for rough riding.

E. R. Bradley arrived at the track today for the first time this year. He will spend a few days at Empire City and then move to Saratoga.

Although Papp's name appears in the entries to the Empire City Derby, last year's Futurity winner may be an absentee when the bugle calls the horses to the post.

The entries for Saturday's racing are the largest since the opening of the meeting. It is expected that the fields will improve from now on.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Former jockey Tom McTaggart, who is still under suspension, the Jockey Club having denied him a license to ride, has undergone a second examination by the army surgeon on his application to join the United States Army, but he has been rejected again by the physical examiners.

H. G. Bedwell, trainer of the Commander Ross stable, spent Sunday at his home in Laurel, Md. Mr. Bedwell reports that the soldiers who have been quartered at the Laurel track since last fall all have been sent away. He also was enthusiastic over the condition of the track for working and racing horses.

POPULARITY OF RACING IN AUSTRALIA

San Francisco, Cal., July 19.—The tremendous popularity of racing in the Antipodes is attested afresh by every traveler returning from England's great island possession. A prominent official who landed here last week declared he had never dreamed a sport could attract anything like the enormous crowds which day after day pushed through the gates of Australian tracks.

Packed grandstands and overflowing infields are the rule, and owing to the stability of the climate, it is unusual for a day's program to be marred by rain. The percentage of race-goers is so great, that, if the same relative proportion existed in this country, we would have a crowd of nearly a million people trying to gain admittance into an enclosure the size of an average track.

In addition to the many benefits derived by the country from so generous a support of racing, large sums have been realized by the government through taxation, at a time when every possible dollar is needed to defeat the Hun.

CONDITION OF NEW ZEALAND RACING

Considerably Affected by Demands of War—Big Stable Earnings of the Leading Turfmen.

The serious dearth of capable jockeys able to ride over hurdles and fences, seems likely to be keenly felt during the approaching jumping season and owners are now experiencing great difficulty in securing boys to school their horses. The heavy reinforcement drafts being sent oversea are taking big toll from the ranks of those professionally engaged in our national pastime and with the married men now going into camp, there are few racing stables that have not had their staffs considerably depleted.

There were indications a few weeks ago that the anti-sporting element in the community intended to again set on foot another agitation to have the racing dates for next season further curtailed, but the indications now are that the heavy drain being exacted on the manpower of the country will make a material difference to patronage the sport can claim during the coming season, so that there will be no call for the government to enforce further restrictions. At a recent meeting of the Auckland District Committee, applications for dates for next season were all granted on the basis of this years' calendar. This may be taken as an indication that the racing conference will not voluntarily reduce the number of racing days and as Parliament has gone into recess until late in the year, Cabinet is hardly likely to interfere with what the racing conference may decide upon so far as next season's racing fixtures are concerned.

WINNING OWNERS.

Although the racing statistics for the season will not be available for a couple of months yet—in fact there is still nine weeks to go before its closes—T. H. Lowry will again top the list of winning owners. He has had a small but select team and the major portion of his winnings are derived from stakes and weight-for-age events. In nine months the Hawke's Bay sportsman has won in stakes $51,600 with six horses, to which may be added $21,315, Desert Gold's earnings in Australia. Egypt was the only horse that sported the Lowry silks this year that brought no return. However, this brother of Desert Gold has been for the greater part of the year under a cloud. At the end of last season Egypt was performing well and gave good promise for a spring campaign, but it was soon seen that the colt was not coming on as had been expected and his racing was distinctly disappointing.

SUCCESSFUL BROTHERS.

Estland was the most successful stable companion of Desert Gold. He started nine times, in which he scored five wins, three seconds and a third. His earnings totaled $19,075. As a two-year-old he won $10,625. His youthful brother Finmark, which finished up the season as the crack juvenile, had a fairly streuous time, as he started in no fewer than thirteen races, which credited Mr. Lowry with $15,800 from five wins, three seconds and four thirds. Desert Gold collected $13,125 from five wins and two thirds in the Dominion. The other two members of the team were the juveniles Killowen and Kilhope, $375.

Four years ago Mr. Lowry won $42,495, which placed him second on the winning owners' list to Sir George Clifford. Since then Mr. Lowry has held the premier position. In 1915-16 he won $86,120 (a record for the Dominion). Last year $59,645 was his credit, so that in four seasons, Mr Lowry has aggregated $235,360.—"Aoeta" in Sydney Referee.

NEW ZONE RATE A HARDSHIP

Congress gives with one hand and takes away with the other when it grants the farmers rural free delivery of mails and imposes heavy postal rates on the newspapers and periodicals they wish to have delivered promptly by the mail carriers. Postal zone rates will nullify the benefits of rural free delivery, but the cost of the service will not be reduced. Farmers asked for rural free delivery because they wished to keep in touch with the world by receiving periodical literature promptly and cheaply. Congress assumed the enormous expense of the service for the purpose of improving the condition of country dwellers and of making America more homogeneous and its citizens less provincial Postal zone rates put an end to that.

In time of war the public craves the fullest information regarding events that are changing the destinies of the human race. Throughout the British Empire postal rates on newspapers and periodicals are kept down to the minimum. The Canadian government carries them at nominal rates, and, in addition, subsidizes the press telegraph service so that every paper in the Dominion may obtain and print the news at trifling expense.

To the mind and the soul of every citizen the news of the war and of our part in it is just as necessary as food for his body. Statesmen recognize this fact. Some peanut politicians are trying to punish the press for throwing light on dark places. Do American farmers wish to be kept in the dark by having the cost of important periodical literature raised to prohibitive prices by postal zone rates? Will they be content to get periodicals by freight weeks after publication?.—New York Commercial.

PAYING THE PRICE

Bolo Pasha faced a firing squad which sent his traitor's soul before the court of last resort. Duval, director of "Bonnet Rouge," which was established by the Germans in Paris early in 1914, to preach pacificism, criticism and defeatism when the war should be begun by the Germans, has paid the price, at sunrise in the misty forest of Vincennes, where Bolo preceded him. Joseph Caillaux, one-time Premier of France, whose wife did a mission of murder in a newspaper office some time before the war, awaits trial for treason and may follow the others to the forest, whose cathedral quiet has been broken often by the reports of rifles aimed at the breasts of Frenchmen whose services aided and comforted the enemies of France.

These occurrences have a sinister meaning to certain exponents of pro-German pacifism who have published newspapers in America. Bolo and Duval were not interested in ventures in journalism more comforting to the kaiser than several journalistic undertakings which had their fling in New York in the early months of America's participation in the war, and when the man in the street declared with conviction that the American government was doing nothing to stifle the traitor press or to punish the traitors who directed it. The government was doing something, as recent indictments and disclosures show. It has something still to do.

The little tragedy in the Forest of Vincennes, in one act at sunrise, is of tremendous significance to more than one traitor in America, who cockily pursued his projects not so long ago, confident, like the man in the street, that the United States government would not handle traitors as they deserve.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

FOREIGN-BRED HORSES IN OUR RACING

Have Not Displayed Superiority Over Homebreds, but Are Figuring Prominently.

New York, July 19.—During the recent Aqueduct meeting, foreign-bred horses figured quite prominently, but not to such an extent as some would have us believe, nor to the discredit of our own American stock. Truth of the matter is that out of the 104 races run, only twenty-three fell to horses bred across the water. In the matter of stake races, our good old American sons and daughters gathered in the lion's share of the rich prizes There were nineteen stake events decided at Aqueduct and but five fell to foreign-bred horses, two being steeplechase stakes won by the high-class jumper The Brook. The most important stake victory of the foreigners was War Cloud's success in the Dwyer Stakes, in which he triumphed over Jack Hare Jr. and Johren. The other stake features on the flat to fall to them was the Astoria Dinner Stakes, the filly Terentia accounting for it and the Brookdale Handicap, which was won by A. K. Macomber's Hand Grenade.

Against that showing the Americans can proudly display the successes of High Time in the Hudson Stakes, Cudgel in the Brooklyn Handicap, Fleeing Sheik in the Carnarsie, Compadre in the Union Stakes, Dunboyne in the Great American, Roamer in the Queens County Handicap, Osgood in the Woodhaven, Campadre in the Rockaway, Elfin Queen in the Clover, Old Koenig in the Carter Handicap, Lord Brighton in the Tremont, Fairy Wand in the Gazelle and Whimsy in the Myrtle Stakes.

The foreigners to win overnight races included Conduit, with two to his credit; Polygon, Enfilade Jusqu' au Bout, Gath, Lady Gertrude, Trompe La Mort, Benevolent, Terentia, Torchbearer, Johren Naturalist, Corn Tassel, Regal Lodge, Nutcracker and Chasseur.

But it is no surprising thing for these foreigners to cut a wide swath in our racing, as the large importations of English and French-bred horses in the past couple of years have brought to our shores some of the most fashionably bred representatives of the thoroughbred world.

Why should they not win, when the blood of the most famous horses of the English and French turf course through their veins? It would be surprising indeed, if they did not. They are owned by Americans who spent large sums to bring them to this country and their present value to our racing is infinitesmal compared to their future value in the stud. For that reason, if no other, may they prosper and build up reputations on the turf as we hope they will afterward in the stud.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY

Allotments to dependents of United States soldiers have increased from 10,000 at the beginning of the war to 800,000. For the month of May these allotments total $5,000,000. Thirty thousand commissioned officers are allotting $1,000,000 a month to their families; noncommissioned officers and privates $4,000,000. In addition nearly $50,000,000 of Liberty Loan Bonds of the second Liberty Loan will have been paid for by members of the army and will be turned over to the purchasers during August, the payments having been made out of allotments made for the purpose.

Receipts of $16,431,933, July 9, from War Savings and Thrift Stamp sales were the largest of any single day since these securities were offered to the public. Sales during the first nine days of July totaled $46,552,529.

This war is to be won not by one man or one thousand men or one million men, or one million people. It is to be won by the united efforts of the individuals of many nations.

Every American citizen has an individual duty to perform, an individual share of the responsibility. The more powerful and effective the American forces are, the shorter will be the war, and the shorter the war, the fewer lives lost, the greater the number of American soldiers who will return home victorious.

Every American who economizes in consumption of material, who increases production, who saves and lends savings to the government, does something to help win the war.

HIGH-CLASS FEATS IN RACING EAST AND WEST OF LEOCHARES

with Meridian, 127 pounds, second; Casuarina, 101 third, and Hawthorn, 115; The Norman, 96, and Boots and Saddle, 110, unplaced. Although knocked back to last place directly after the start, he made up his lost ground rapidly and, coming through the homestretch with a remarkable burst of speed, wound up by winning in a canter four lengths in advance of Meridian, the latter being the favorite at 21 to 20 and a high-class horse in any company and at any distance. Leochares was second choice at 13 to 5. Following this important success he was taken east and did not fare well there. His first start was in the Toboggan Handicap of three-quarters of a mile, at Belmont Park, June 11, in which, carrying 115 pounds, he ran sixth in a field of fifteen to Rock View, 126 pounds; Figinny, 100. and Ten Point, 128. Time, 1:12⅕. Next he was unplaced in a purse race won by Roamer at Belmont Park, June 20. At Aqueduct, June 27, he was unplaced to Roamer, Borrow and Flying Fairy in the Carter Handicap, and on June 30, in a purse race won by Gainer, with Adelaide T., second and Yankee Notions third. At Empire City, July 16, he did better when he finished second to Ten Point in the Fleetwing Handicap, at three-quarters in 1:13, but Ten Point had up 125 pounds to his 111. Surprising was third and four other fast ones unplaced. Next he was unplaced in a purse race, and on July 25 ran third to Surprising and Ten Point in the Mt. Vernon Handicap, at a mile in 1:40⅕ over a slow track. But he was not to leave New York tracks pointless, for on July 29, at Empire City, he won a purse from Isidora, Mr. Specs, Altamaha and Adams Express and was then taken to Fort Erie.

There he resumed his winning ways by defeating Back Bay, Little Nephew, Pan Zareta and some others at three-quarters in 1:11⅗, but was beaten in his next five races, although second three times and third twice. He did not win again until at Churchill Downs, October 9, when he captured the Falls City Handicap at three-quarters of a mile in 1:13, over a muddy track. He carried 116 pounds and, in a desperate finish, won by a nose from Helen Barbee, also at 116 pounds. Grover Hughes, 114, was a head back and another head away was Prince Hermis, 105. The Widow Moon, 103, and Lady Panchita, 100, also ran. Then he won five of his next six races, all for purses, over the Louisville and Latonia tracks. His last race of the year was at Latonia, in a dash of three-quarters of a mile, which he won by a nose from Bringhurst in 1:11⅕, carrying 124 pounds to 120 on the latter. Helen Barbee, 117, was third and three more unplaced. Bringhurst had beaten him in 1:11⅘ a short time previously and their clashing was one of the highly interesting features of the Kentucky fall campaign.

Leochares began his 1915 campaign in whirlwind fashion, winning the first three races in which he started. In his first race at Churchill Downs he met and defeated such high-class exponents of speed as Iron Mask, High Noon, Hodge, Bars and Stars and Chalmers, running the five and a half furlongs in 1:05⅕. In his next race he picked up 121 pounds and beat High Noon, carrying 112, at three-quarters of a mile in 1:12⅕. His third victory was easily achieved, Leochares, with 123 pounds in the saddle, running away from the lightly-weighted Chalmers, which carried 107 pounds.

With such an excellent start it appeared as if Leochares was in for a record-breaking year. However, it was far from such. He won but one more race during the year, that an all-aged handicap at Saratoga, in which he finished ahead of Conning Tower, Thornhill and six others. The good handicap horse Hodge proved a stumbling block for Leochares, as he beat him on three different occasions in fast run races, with Leochares a good second each time. J. W. Schorr, in whose colors he had run since a two-year-old, then sold the fast sprinter to John Sanford and he was sent to Charleston, S. C., for a much-needed rest.

After a winter's respite from training and racing, Leochares came back in 1916 with all the dash and vim of his younger days. He was not started until the Saratoga meeting and won his first start there by four lengths, with a good band of fast horses finishing behind him. Proceeding to Belmont Park he easily accounted for the only races in which he started there and then again changed hands, going to the stable of W. P. Orr, who immediately shipped him to Laurel, Md., where, in the colors of his new owner, he won the Laurel Handicap from Sir Edgar, Top o' th' Morning and nine others. Later, at the same meeting, he finished second to A. N. Akin in the Columbus Handicap, but forced the winner to equal the track record for three-quarters of a mile to beat him. From Laurel he was sent to Pimlico, where he experienced little trouble winning the Pimlico Fall Serial Handicap No. 1 from good opposition. In the running of the Serial Handicap No. 2 the French-bred Chiclet took Leochares' measure after the latter was forced wide in the stretch. Leochares wound up his racing for that year by a victory in the Terminal Purse at one mile at Bowie. Altogether, he started in seven races that year, won five and finished second on the other two occasions.

EARLY START LAST YEAR.

Last year Leochares made an early start, his first race being at New Orleans on January 9th, in the New Orleans Handicap, in which he picked up 130 pounds and won by ten lengths in 1:12, equalling the track record for three-quarters of a mile. A few weeks later Leochares, with 145 pounds in the saddle, finished first in the Momus Highweight Handicap, ahead of J. J. Murdock, 120; Fruit Cake, 110; Squeeler, 124, and Amazon, 111.

Leochares was then reserved for eastern racing and was shipped to Havre de Grace, where on the opening day of that meeting, on April 16th, he started in the Harford Handicap, for which he was favorite. Sand Marsh won the race easily, with Leochares second and H. P. Whitney's Pennant third, Leochares seeming to tire after gaining on the leader in the stretch.

In the Philadelphia Handicap a few days later, Leochares was second to Pennant after a fast and hard fought finish. Leochares was outpaced in the early running, but closed up with a sensational rush and almost overhauled the winner. The Susquehanna was a repetition of the Philadelphia, Pennant again beating Leochares, the latter not being able to withstand the final rush of the Whitney representative.

Later at Pimlico Leochares finished fourth to Pennant, Crimper and Runes in the Pimlico Spring Handicap, but appeared to be deficient in speed on that occasion. From Pimlico Leochares was shipped to Jamaica, where he finished third to Kewessa and He Will in the Paumonok Handicap, in a sensational finish, in which Leochares closed an immense gap and was gaining on the leaders with every stride, being beaten by less than a half length. Later at Belmont Park, Leochares was a starter in the Toboggan Handicap and finished fourth to Campfire, Stromboli and Rickety, after a rough race in the early running. In the Queens County Handicap at Aqueduct, Leochares was unplaced, Old Rosebud, Roamer, Chiclet and The Finn finishing ahead of him.

We next find Leochares at Fort Erie, where on July 4th, he finished third to Rancher and Liberty Loan in the Fourth of July Stakes. He was then shipped to Empire City, where in his first start, he was defeated by the speedy mare Pan Zareta, after a sensational closing drive, in which Leochares just failed to overtake the mare, after displaying marvelous speed in overcoming a slow start and racing wide all the way. A few days later at the same track he was again beaten by Pan Zareta and High Noon.

RESTED DURING THE SUMMER.

Leochares was not raced at Saratoga last summer, but was rested until the Belmont Park meeting began in September. His first race there found him third to St. Isidore and Corn Tassel, in an overnight handicap. Later at Aqueduct, he earned brackets in a dash of six and a half furlongs, in which he equalled the track record for the distance, 1:18. At the same track, a week later, Leochares, with 140 pounds in the saddle, was only a short distance behind Ultimatum and Sharpshooter in a highweight handicap at six and a half furlongs and was gaining with every stride at the end, despite his heavy impost. Straight Forward then beat him by a nose in a race in which Leochares would have won, but for poor early racing luck and interference.

With the close of the metropolitan racing, Leochares was shipped to Maryland, where in the Georgetown Handicap, he started for the first time in the colors of E. B. McLean, who purchased him at Aqueduct, and was beaten by Westy Hogan after another rough race. In the Prince George Handicap, he finished third to Ticket and Naturalist on a heavy track and was evidently handicapped by the going. Leochares then defeated the great little two-year-old Tippity Witchet, after the latter had set the pace to the final eighth.

Going to Pimlico, Leochares duplicated his success of the year before in the Pimlico Fall Serial Handicap No. 1, winning by four lengths over good opposition. A week later, in the Pimlico Fall Serial Handicap No. 2, he ran a grand race to beat Westy Hogan three-quarters of a length at one mile in 1:39⅗.

In his last start of the year, Leochares was beaten by Startling, carrying 115 pounds to Leochares' 131. He ran a great race under the weight and, but for going wide on the far turn, might have won.

His complete racing record is as follows:

CANADIAN JOCKEYS JOIN THE COLORS

Toronto, Ont., July 19.—Three well-known Canadian jockeys, Harvey Boyle, "Bill" Warrington and "Bill" Whatley, are among the recent arrivals from over the border to return to Canada and join the colors. Boyle, when in his prime, was one of the best steeplechase riders in America. Of late years he deserted the ranks of the riders through the field and has been devoting his energies to training.

Warrington received his early education with Charles Boyle of Woodstock, and piloted his first winner, Boyle's Detective, to victory over the turf course at Hamilton in the spring of 1910. He developed rapidly thereafter, and met with considerable success on both the Canadian and American tracks.

"Bill" Whatley is a Montreal boy, and his riding was confined mostly to the second circuits in Canada. He rode for several Montreal horsemen when in his prime. Like Boyle, Whatley also drifted into the ranks of the trainers, at which he was fairly successful.
